

Example of the Reading Comprehension trait from the grades 6-11 rubric:

- Reading Comprehension of Key Ideas and Details:
 - Score Point 4
 - ⦿ The student response demonstrates full comprehension of ideas stated explicitly and inferentially by providing an accurate analysis and supporting the analysis with effective and convincing textual evidence.
 - Score Point 3
 - ⦿ The student response demonstrates comprehension of ideas stated explicitly and/or inferentially by providing a mostly accurate analysis, and supporting the analysis with adequate textual evidence.
 - Score Point 2
 - ⦿ The student response demonstrates basic comprehension of ideas stated explicitly and/or inferentially by providing a generally accurate analysis and supporting the analysis with basic textual evidence.
 - Score Point 1
 - ⦿ The student response demonstrates limited comprehension of ideas stated explicitly and/or inferentially by providing a minimally accurate analysis and supporting the analysis with limited textual evidence.
 - Score Point 0
 - ⦿ The student response demonstrates no comprehension of ideas by providing inaccurate or no analysis and little to no textual evidence.

Note: Scoring rubrics vary by grade, but the scoring process is the same. This includes a difference in the number of score points per trait.

The rubric tables are available here: <https://prc.parcconline.org/assessments/parcc-released-items>

Anchor sets are clear and representative examples of student performance at every score point and are used to ensure that scorers interpret rubrics consistently. Anchor sets include annotations that reference both the rubric and examples from the student response to explain why the response received a particular score. All scorers have access to the anchor set during training and are required to refer to it regularly, in conjunction with the rubrics, as they evaluate student responses and determine scores. Reading Comprehension and Written Expression anchor sets are created for each individual task. Knowledge of Language and Conventions anchor sets include examples from multiple tasks.
